

For God So Loved the World...

Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.

John 3:14-15

To live in the shadow... of the CROSS..

Today's Gospel has the verse probably most popular and memorized of all the verses in Scripture by Catholics, Christians, and even non-believers, John 3:16. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but have eternal life.

We know it, we love it, but do we believe it really?

John goes on to encourage us to live in the light—to let not only our goodness, but also our nastiness be upfront and honest in the light of truth, the light of Jesus. For he didn't come to condemn us of our sins, but to save us. For he so LOVES the world!!! We don't always want to believe it. We're afraid of "showing ourselves" to Christ in the light for fear of failure, unworthiness, disbelief, or the blatant contentment with our own sinfulness. Because honestly, sometimes it's just easier to live in the shadows...

In a way, Jesus says that's alright... so long as it's HIS shadow... You see, it is Christ, the true light, who walks before us, shielding the darkness from our path and saving us from ourselves. He's been doing it since day one and gives us an example from about 1500 years earlier than this Gospel, during the time of Moses. As they did for many of their 40-year wanderings, the Israelites turned against God's goodness. Consequently, they are infested and bitten by poisonous seraph snakes. Ironically, but not surprisingly, they ask Moses to pray to God to drive the snakes away and heal them from their sickness. God has Moses build them a bronze serpent mounted on a pole for all to see. Anyone who looked at it recovered. Jesus, being the "New Moses" compared his saving grace to this incident: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up. So that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

The only shadow we are to live in is his own, the one he casts on us from his holy cross, the one that illumines our goodness and shortcomings alike. The one that if we gaze upon it and believe we too will be saved from the sinfulness that infects our being. Through it we have nothing to fear... not even the darkness. For if we believe the line we all know and have memorized, then we must believe that God really loves us that much. Know that love always ~ Sara

It's Laetare Sunday!

Prayer for Laetare Sunday

Dear Jesus,

We've been in this season of Lent for a few weeks now. I want to re-commit myself in this time — renew and strengthen my resolve. Help me to use these last few weeks to grow closer to you.

Amen ©LPi

Laetare is the Latin word that means “rejoice”. As this Sunday marks the halfway point of the Lenten Season, it’s an opportunity for us to look for the hope on the other side of our Lenten journey through the desert of our fast. An opportunity to assess and re-examine our hearts and how God is drawing us nearer to His heart through these beautifully barren days. Rejoice! For at the end of every Lent is always an Easter!

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.— Father John Muir ©LPI

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED: What’s the difference between priests and brothers, friars, etc.?

Answer: The distinctions titles and categories used for priests and the male members of religious communities can be confusing, especially since the categories can sometimes be intertwined as a man can be both a priest and a monk, or a brother and a friar. So, to help to piece the puzzle together, it’s important to begin by noting some basic distinctions: The distinction between priests (who are ordained for sacramental ministry) and brothers (who are non-ordained members of religious communities and who are committed to lives of prayer and service).

Priests: A priest is a man who has been ordained for sacramental ministry and these fall into two categories: A) Diocesan (or Secular) Priests can either be attached to a diocese and who serve under a bishop. Their ministry is usually oriented toward pastoral service. B) Religious Priests are members of religious communities (like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Salvatorians, or Carmelites) and their lives are guided by the special mission and charism of their community. While both kinds of priest practice sacramental ministry, their spirituality and how they live out their priesthood can be very different.

Brothers: Brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities (such as those mentioned above) who live lives committed to prayer and service. Religious priests and brothers serve together in their communities and their ministries include much more than the care of parishes.

Monks, Friars, and Canons: These are broad categories that include religious priests and brothers, and each of these is connected to specific ways of life and spiritualities. ©LPI

Confession and the Gift of Forgiveness

The U.S. Bishops' pastoral exhortation, "God's Gift of Forgiveness," on the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, notes that in confession, "we meet the Lord, who wants to grant forgiveness and the grace to live a renewed life in Him. In this sacrament, He prepares us to receive Him, free from serious sin, with a lively faith, earnest hope, and sacrificial love in the Eucharist."

The Church requires that every Catholic go at least once a year. The exhortation encourages us of the potential gifts received in the Sacrament: "By the grace of the Holy Spirit, we seek forgiveness and repentance, let go of patterns of sin, grow in the life of virtue, and witness to a joyful conversion."

Pope Benedict XVI said, "The New Evangelization ... begins in the confessional!"
