

The Week that Changed Everything...

This is Holy Week

Do this. Remember Me.

Announce your joy, your excitement, and like a loud 'hosana' shout in every corner of your life the moments you've known My goodness. Let those moments mark your heart... for how easily they forget the goodness when the shouts of joy fade... when the warmth of a Sunday dims to the cold darkness of the looming days ahead.

Do this. Remember Me.

Rest in my presence. As you bustle about in preparation for the celebrations, the traditions, the meals, the easter baskets, take the moment... make a moment for Me... You know where to find Me... I'm in the holy sanctuary waiting for you... and I'm in the sanctuary of your 'inner room', the heart that only you know, and I know more deeply. Come and rest.

Do this. Remember Me.

In the moments you feel alone, forgotten, or betrayed, know that I know just how you feel. I've experienced my closest friends and confidants leave me one by one, as flames extinguished into darkness, and I alone stood still... the only candle lit in a stone-cold church. I know what it's like to face the hardest days alone. Don't be afraid of the darkness. For I AM the one light burning brightly beside you.

Do this. Remember Me.

I AM all you need. I will fill your deepest desires. I chose not only to come into this world and to save it, but also to stay behind so that you may be strengthened each day. Renew your heart in the immense love I have for you, for I've become your servant. Know My goodness. Know you are loved. Come receive Me in Holy Eucharist.

Do this. Remember Me.

I thirst for you. I've known you for all time. And from all time, I knew that I could never be parted from you. I've become all things to save you. Embrace My arms outstretched in mercy... in incomprehensible love.

Do this. Remember Me.

Remember what I've taught you... especially when you feel hopeless or uncertain. For I Am in the 'in-between'. The sealed tomb, guarded by the fiercest regime couldn't contain My plan... and neither will it for My dreams for you. This week of weeks you will remember forever. And it is good that you do. For these events you recall and live are a gift to you, that through My suffering and death you may experience, in every sense My glory. And I promise you—you will see My glory!... *For by coming back from death's domain, I shed my peaceful light on humanity, and live and reign forever and ever.

Do this. Remember Me.

Let this week be in you what it was always meant to be. Praise the Beautiful Lamb!

~ Sara

A man wearing a "John 3:16" sweatshirt boarded a New York subway and sat down. The man next to him and said, "If you don't mind my asking, what's this "John 3:16?" "I am not religious, just curious." The first man recited the verse, "I don't understand," the questioner said. "I don't either," said the first man. "I can't fathom how God could send His Son to die for us. But I don't need to understand in order to be grateful."

As we hear the height and depth of God's love for us entering this most holy of weeks, may our hearts be eternally grateful for what He has done for us. May we renew our love for the love that embraces us.

God Bless You and Keep You,

Fr. Tim

The Little White Book

(Easter Reflection Books) are available now in the Parish Office & Atrium!

Stop by and pick one up as we prepare to journey through the Easter Season!

As We Journey With Our Lord!

PSCF CORNER

Special thanks to Second Grade PSCF teacher, Nancy Porter, who maintains the bulletin board in the stairwell leading to the classrooms. Just another example of the handiwork of the children that Mrs. Porter puts on display for our edification!

Attention Preschoolers!

There will be no Preschool during 10AM Sunday Mass on March 31.
Have a Happy Easter!

There are so many people to thank for the FISH

FRY! Under the supervision and direction of Cindy Lee we had every Friday of Lent with a full house and lots of happy people. Thank you to all of the volunteers and to the Bakers. Thank you all so very much! We truly have an extraordinary parish family! Until next year!...

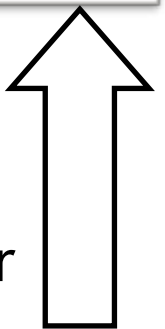

THIS IS THE WEEK! Our Candidates Dan and Jan and Catechumen, Shannon will officially be welcomed to the faith this Holy Saturday!

That the first Easter light affirm and aflame in their hearts a continued deepening relationship with Jesus. We're so excited for you!

This fun group above.... Our 8am Usher Crew! The photo deserved a resurfacing.... Consider offering your time in service to the church by being an USHER. It's very simple to do and scheduling works with your schedule! Join the team!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Whole Story

The Bible is a strange book.

It's one of the only books that most people never read in its entirety, even those who claim it as one of their favorites. It's also one of the only books that we feel comfortable chopping up and sectioning out. There's nothing wrong with that, really, until people start making wholesale judgments of divine revelation based on one tiny part of it. You can't base your belief system on a few lines from Leviticus and ignore the Gospels, just like you can't embrace the teachings of Jesus and ignore the Old Testament. You need to accept the whole story, in its entirety, or none of it means anything.

But it's hard, because accepting the whole story means patience. It means critical thinking. It requires endurance. It's easier just to throw a line from Leviticus at a problem and be done with it.

Holy Week reminds us that salvation history is a tapestry, not a collection of threads. As beautiful as the individual stitches might be, you won't appreciate the message unless you back up and look at the complete product. If we didn't have the whole story, Holy Thursday and Good Friday would be neither holy nor good. And without Holy Week, Easter morning means nothing – it's just a guy waking up.

How often in life do we find ourselves confused to the point of hopelessness, unable to make sense of it all? Overwhelmed by the pain and suffering that exists in this world, and for seemingly no reason. Some of us become so frustrated we throw up our hands and despair.

We need Easter. We need the whole story. We need to be patient.

“His disciples did not understand this at first, but when Jesus had been glorified they remembered that these things were written about him and that they had done this for him.”
— John 12:16

PRAYER - FOR EVERYDAY AND EVERYBODY

Prayer for Palm Sunday

Blessed be your name, oh Lord my God!
As we enter this week of your Passion and Death, keep me in lockstep with you.
Help me to be attentive to every word you would have me hear, every lesson you would have me learn. I want to journey with you. Amen.
