

ALLELUIA!

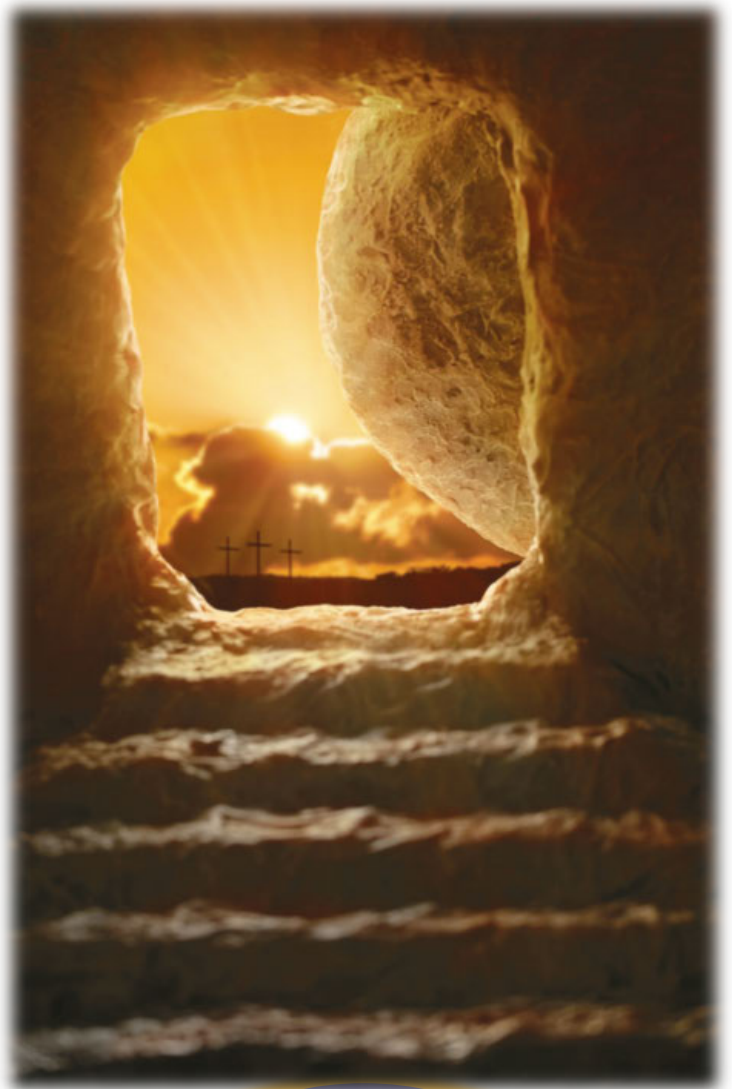

My Dear Friends in Christ ,

Happy Easter! Jesus Christ has truly risen just as he foretold. What a glorious day and a blessing that reaches the depth of our soul. May we all be an Easter People, living in the light of the Lord.

I am so deeply grateful to be your Pastor and your friend. We have a beautiful community of faith here from many different communities, making us one. I want to thank all those who helped to make this Holy Week, EXTRA holy! Our Parish Staff, Music Ministry, Ministries at the Altar, Sacristans, and YOU, my beloved parishioners who make Saint Colette a place to grow in faith and in love. We are a family!

One final note, thank you, thank you, thank you to all those who helped to make our Fish Frys an extraordinary success, under the leadership of Cindy Lee. The bakery was outstanding! Thank you to the Daughters of Saint Colette.

God Bless You and
Keep You,

Prayer of Blessing
Dear Lord,
Pour your blessings
upon us today, we who trust in your name and call upon you. Send us your Spirit, enlighten our hearts, fill our lives with your abundance.
Amen.

As you make your way to the tomb to anoint the body of our Master, set aside your tears. Do not let your hearts be troubled. The dark morning skies are giving way to the new light of day. It is nearly morning !
Look the sun is rising....

Christ indeed from death is Risen, our new life obtaining. Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!

Amen . Alleluia!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

What Would Mary Do?

This Easter morning, I am thinking of Mary Magdalene.

I want to know her state of mind as she approached the tomb in the darkness. Was she afraid? Was she thinking clearly? Was she tired? Had grief and trauma robbed her of her sleep the last two nights? What did she intend to do? Anoint Christ's body, yes – but what else? Kiss his hands, trace the markings where the lash had fallen upon his skin? Say goodbye? Weep? Despair?

What were the words she planned to whisper into the cold, empty darkness that morning, as she wept over God's body?

I don't know anything about her state of mind that Easter morning, except that I know she wanted to be with Christ. Perhaps that was all she knew, too. Perhaps she had no other thought, no other desire, than nearness to him. She didn't need to understand everything, and she didn't expect answers – she didn't dare hope for that.

But everything and everyone had fallen apart around her, and in Jesus' presence she knew her heart would be able to rest.

If you have ever been in the midst of a crisis in your life and found yourself pacing the floors of your house when no one else is awake, muttering the words to a prayer you know by heart, you know what Mary Magdalene felt. In those moments, we do not always feel God's presence. Sometimes, when we look for Him, we only see an empty tomb.

When these dark moments come, I pray you will remember the faithfulness of this great saint. Be like Mary Magdalene. Look for Jesus, always. You may not always find him, but he will always find you.

“She ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, ‘They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him.’” – John 20:2

Happy Easter!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 31, 2024
Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

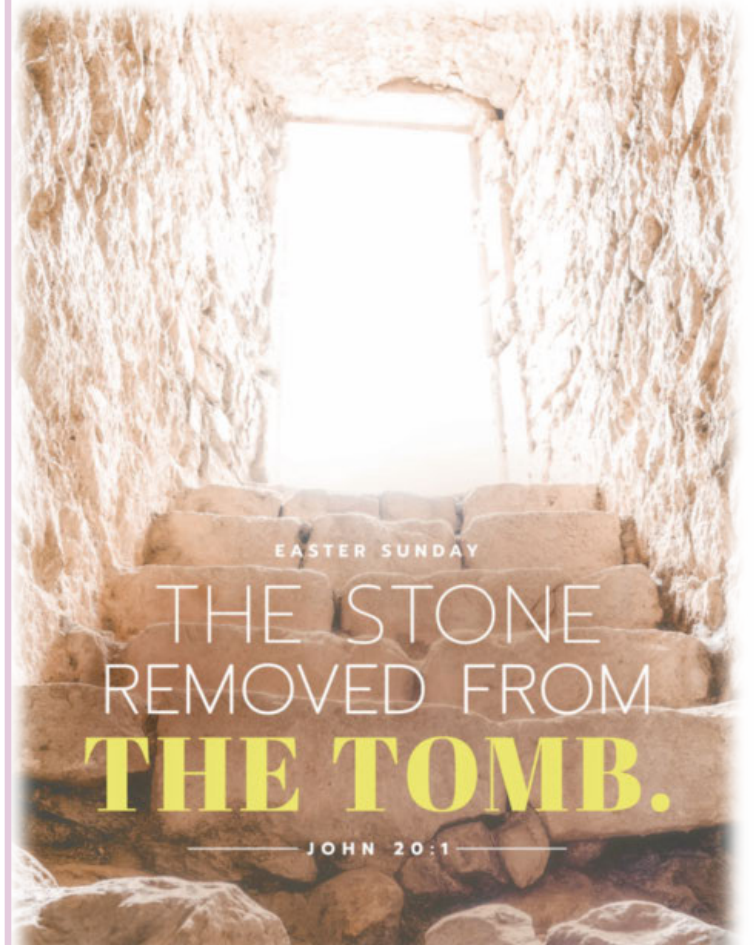

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter – if we dare – those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

– Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY -
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Even as the disciples saw the empty tomb and the discarded burial cloths, they did not understand what had happened. But they kept faith, trusting that the Lord was at work. Let us keep that same faith when we do not find God where we expect Him to be.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Spiritual Communion

Question:

What is spiritual communion, and do you need to be in a state of grace to receive it?

Answer:

The practice of making a “spiritual communion” dates back several centuries and St. Thomas Aquinas described it as “an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament and a loving embrace as though we had already received Him.” Traditionally, a prayer of spiritual communion has been used by those who are unable to receive sacramental communion because of health, inability to attend Mass, or who cannot receive communion because of grave sin. This practice has been encouraged by many saints and spiritual writers and most recently Pope Francis encouraged the practice when the realities of the COVID-19 pandemic prevented so many Catholics from taking part in the Mass or receiving sacramental communion.

Although the graces offered in spiritual communion are not the same as those offered in the sacramental communion of the Mass, this practice is still a powerful opportunity to express our desire for union with the Lord and to be united with Christ and the Church, even in an imperfect way. ©LPi

Men's Retreat Thank you!

A huge thank you to our team: Fr. Tim, Fr. Marc, Fr. Conrad, Fr. Michael, Deacon Scott, the Fish Fry Volunteers, and all who made the Men's Retreat a prayerful experience. And to the guys who came, may you always use the 'tools' you've been given to be strong witnesses of God's Goodness. May He continue to bless you!

Divine Mercy Sunday is Sunday April 7th. While we are not offering Divine Mercy Prayers at 3pm in church, we encourage you to pray them wherever you are or at another church. Jesus' mercy overflows to us as undeserving as we feel at times... for we are most precious to Him. Jesus, My Lord and My God!

*And in a moment,

a phrase in a small picture frame that used to hang in Fr. Krizner's rectory. It was the front of an Easter card he got some years ago and I remember him showing it to me, in awe of the message. I thought it kind of silly at first that he'd frame a greeting card picture. But of course it all makes sense now.

Change comes to all of us. And while often change is planned and exciting, more often it's unexpected. As human beings, we're not so good at the unexpected. But the truth is, that's where God loves to surprise us!

God's plan of salvation was made known since man's beginning and through Jesus so many times. Yet how "unexpected" it came to his closest friends. Mary Magdalene, Peter, John and the other Apostles probably loved their life and ministry with Jesus and never wanted it to change. But it did. And the change was hard initially, but brought about the greatest of rewards they and all of us could ever hope for: the assurance that every discomfort prunes us for greater things, every pain and suffering leads to insurmountable joy, every loss of physical proximity with a close friend brings indescribable spiritual closeness... oneness... in the ultimate triumph of Life Eternal with the One who changed everything.

Much has happened one year later... and for our parish family of St. Colette - MANY good things, including Fr. Tim! We are so blessed! Like the first crocus that bloomed beneath the winter snow, our mourning, suffering, and gloom has been resurrected to newness of life and hope for the future. And that's what's supposed to happen. Could you imagine if the women who anointed Jesus remained in despair? Or if the Apostles had not "gone out" and proclaimed what they were taught? Jesus's life, death, and resurrection was always meant to be shared... through us! Not kept in the tomb of our grief. And the same goes for our loved ones, including Fr. Krizner...shared through us. And in turn, we'll be reminded of their presence (believe me, Fr. Krizner's been busier than ever up there! I'm sure a good many of you would say the same:)).

That greeting card now it hangs in my office. I pass it every day and smile, reminded of the assurance of Easter: that Father, who believed in the Resurrection with all his heart walks with the ONE who changed everything.

God love you! Happy Easter! ~Sara
