

Live in My love with all your heart

Good Morning | Good Afternoon,
CHILDREN OF GOD!

My Dear Friends in Christ,

What a grace-filled weekend! One of my favorite moments in ministry is to offer Holy Communion to my people; especially to those receiving Holy Communion for the first time. This Saturday our Church was filled with great joy as our children opened their hands and hearts to receive Jesus. Thank you, my dear parents, for your faith and love of God that you impart on your children. Thank you, instructors as you have been a source of love and support, teaching our children about Jesus. Thank you to Chris and Larry Pizon, who have provided such beautiful leadership of our Parish School of Catholic Formation and the sacramental life of our Parish! Finally, thank you to our children, receiving Holy Communion. Your joy becomes our joy, your faith becomes our faith. Your love, our love as well. Please come to the altar often, celebrating God's incredible love for us in Jesus!

God Bless You,

Fr. Pim

O Jesus, we adore you,
Who in your love divine,
Conceal your mighty Godhead
In forms of bread and wine.
O sacrament most holy,
O sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be ev'ry moment thine!

O Jesus, we adore you,
Our Savior and our King,
And with the saints and angels
Our humble homage bring.
O sacrament most holy,
O sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be ev'ry moment thine!

O Jesus, we adore you;
Come, live in us, we pray,
That all our thoughts and actions
Be yours alone today.
O sacrament most holy,
O sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be ev'ry moment thine!
Amen.+

"Dear friends, let us
continue to love
one another,
for Love comes from God.
Anyone who loves is a
Child of God
and knows God."

1 John 4:7

May you always know the joy of a friendship with Jesus.

Congratulations on your special day!

What's your idea of heaven? We all have one, but I'll bet that all of our images would include "a place where God dwells." Something I read in a book recently changed my whole thought process on this forever, especially each time I go to Mass. And on this First Communion Weekend, it seems appropriate to share. Paraphrased it reads that each time we receive Eucharist, we are making ourselves a heaven for Jesus, the place he's wanted to dwell from all time.

From all time....

From the time his immense goodness and begotten, consubstantial, trinitarian love breathed THAT spirit into Adam and Eve...

From, the time he first formed a people through Abraham...

From the time he delivered that people from slavery and gave them his law....

From the time he first revealed his kingly heart through David...

From the time he spoke comfort, repentance and promise through the voices of the prophets...

From the time his heart was made flesh, and his promise fulfilled; and the tidings made glad to the afflicted; and the kinship exemplified through washing feet; and the Words from his very mouth said, "Do this, remember Me."....

God's plan from ALL TIME was to be one with his children, to make his 'Heaven' in us. And like a child learns by building upon knowledge relative to their level of understanding, God did the same for us as he formed relationships then, and the deepest, most virtuous friendships today. Friendship with the beautiful, innocent second graders who made themselves a "heaven for Jesus" for the first time... and friendship with us too.

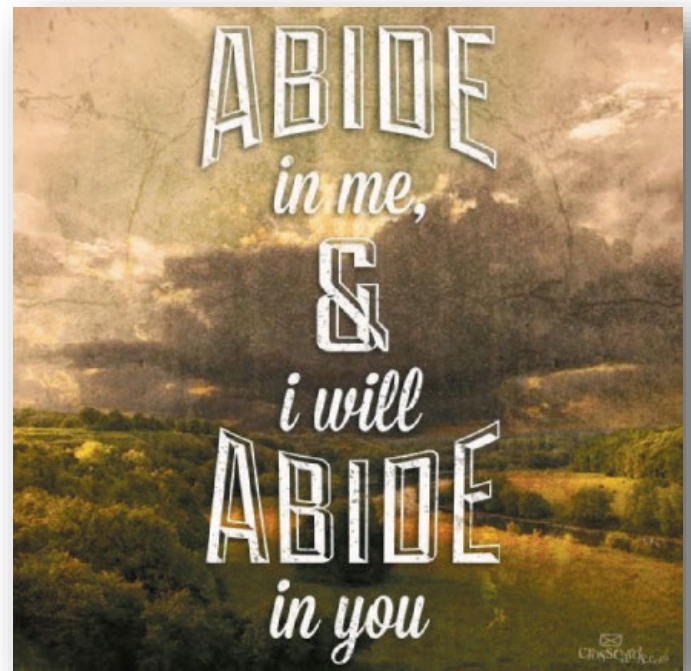

It's hard to be "all in" sometimes in the thought that my sinful heart could be any heaven worthy of the most holy One. It's easier to think of heaven as somewhere I'm trying to go. And maybe you feel that way too. However, as the readings from today profoundly depict (as does God's track record from "all time"), we are more than the sum of our own thoughts. We are the sum of the One who has chosen us, who loves us, and who calls us friend... everything. Remember that each time you make yourself a heaven for Jesus. ~Sara

The book is I Believe in Love, by By: Jean C.J. d'Elbee (it WRECKED my heart in the best way, I highly recommend it).

Prayer of Love

God the Father, You created me in love. Jesus, your love for me compelled you to come to earth to die for me. Holy Spirit, love between God and Jesus, now you surround me with the love of the Father and the Son. Help me to live out this reality, today and always.

Amen. ©LPi

SAINT OF THE WEEK – St. Cyril of Jerusalem

Biography

St. Cyril of Jerusalem (c.315-386) was born and raised in Jerusalem. He was educated in the Faith and had a love of Scripture at an early age that guided him toward the priesthood.

After he was ordained a priest by the bishop of Jerusalem, he went on to serve as a catechist for those newly baptized in his congregations. The writings he produced during the early years of his priesthood have gone on to help give the modern Church a clear example of how the Church of the East did things during those first few centuries of Christianity. They included teachings on the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, prerequisites for Baptism, the Eucharistic liturgy, and more.

During the fourth century the Arian heresy, which denied the divinity of Christ, was threatening to tear the young Church apart. It was during this time that Cyril was ordained Bishop of Jerusalem and accused by his contemporaries of Arianism. They exiled him from his homeland on three different occasions, but he was ultimately acquitted of the accusations both in his own time and a thousand years later when he was named a Doctor of the Church in 1822.

Once back in Jerusalem, he and a bishop named Gregory, who would become St. Gregory, attended the Council of Constantinople, where the Nicene Creed was officially adopted. During this time, he publicly accepted and promoted the word “consubstantial,” the word the Council of Nicaea chose to describe Christ's divinity and the relationship between God the Father and the Son.

His life reminds us that even a prominent theologian of the Church can suffer pain from controversy. Despite this, he never gave up and went on to be recognized as a Doctor of the Church. St. Cyril, pray for us!

Coming up!

The Feast of the Ascension of the Lord! Can you believe it will be 40 days since Easter Sunday?! While in many dioceses this feast day is a Holy Day of Obligation, it is not for ours. So “Ascension Thursday” which is 5/9, will be celebrated on the May 11th/12th weekend. FYI the next Holy Day the Lord invites us to attend Mass is the Assumption of Mary on August 14th/15th... mark your calendars :)

No Mass at St. Colette on Thursday, 5/9/24.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Christ's love for us is radical — it changed the whole world. It will not be easy to love as Christ loved, but this is the mission for which we have been chosen by God. So let us love one another. Let us change the world.
