

Ascension Sunday

I am with you wherever you are in the world.

Don't look up at the sky...

A wise friend of mine once said, “you are the version of God He wanted to share with the world.” And our readings today on this beautiful Ascension feast, echo that sentiment: But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked through them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs (Mark 16:20). We’re not all called to the same life, but we are all called to the same command— to be that version of God... and know that he’s always working through us.

This excerpt is taken from Santuncci’s Meeting Jesus, A New Way to Christ. And for “forever” it will resonate in my heart as a profound explanation of the Ascension of our Lord. He’s been everywhere we’ve been and will be... because He dwells not “in the clouds” but in the version of Him that is YOU. GO share Him. ~Sara

When the clouds have hidden me from your eyes, you’ll go on gazing at their restlessly shifting shapes against the silk of heaven. You’d like to stay there for thousands of years, because you were told he’ll come back exactly as you saw him rise. Then two men dressed in white will tell you to go home. Obey them, go down with the others. And when you’ve shut your door behind you, and stand among your poor possessions, and then lean out of your window, know that I have still another thing to tell you. Don’t look up at the sky. On this, the day of the Ascension I’m hiding behind a cloud, but I could equally hide myself behind a bush, in the hollow trunk of a tree, or in a pool in Galilee. The Father to whom I’m going doesn’t live beyond the flight of birds. He’s on the moors swept by the wind, in unknown haystacks where you may happen to sleep one night, on mountain ridges, under the bed, and on the roofs of cities.

Prayer of Mission

Dear Lord,

Grace us with courage and zeal as we go forth in Your name, speaking your Word, offering Your love, and bringing Your healing to a world in need.

Amen.

LPI

After I’ve ascended, he and I will be wherever you are in the world. Then nothing will be strange to you. Whenever you set foot in a strange land you’ll recognize it behind some hidden memory because I shall have lived there for you. Whenever you leave a country you’ll know that you’re not altogether abandoning it, because you’ll leave me there. Everywhere will become your motherland and your home. Distances will be wiped out from the moment when I left the hilltop and set out on my travels through the world. Then you’ll understand that I only pretended to go away. You’ll understand it for this reason: that you’ll no longer feel afraid.

My life doesn’t end here; if it ended you too would die. It goes on even when you wish for dissolution, because it’s precisely in me that you long to be dissolved. Every despair, every travail of your day is a desire to reunite yourselves with me, to see me again on the clouds, to serve me at table (221-222).

Happy Mother's Day!

*The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God
is the heart of a mother.*

—St. Therese of Lisieux

*And no heart is more beautiful than that of our Blessed Mother. While I love this quote,
I don't always think my heart looks like a
"lovely masterpiece." I do, however, personally take great comfort in the fact that on my worst days when I'm worn,
frustrated, or simply empty, my "mama
Mary" is beside me giving me the assurance,
and gentle push I need to continue on the Way. Like any other good mom, she just wants to help us shine. So on this Mother's Day weekend, we thank God for the gift of our mothers, the gift of motherhood, and the tremendous GIFT of His mother who will always reveal the way to her Son. Have a wonderful week! ~Sara*

*Lovely Lady dressed in blue ---
Teach me how to pray!
God was just your little boy,
Tell me what to say!*

*Did you lift Him up,
sometimes,
Gently on your knee?
Did you sing to Him the way
Mother does to me?*

*Did you hold His hand at night?
Did you ever try
Telling stories of the world?
O! And did He cry?*

*Do you really think He cares
If I tell Him things --- Little things that happen? And Do the Angels' wings*

*Make a noise? And can He hear
Me if I speak low?
Does He understand me now?
Tell me ---for you know.*

*Lovely Lady dressed in blue ---
Teach me how to pray!
God was just your little boy,
And you know the way.
-Mary Dixon Thayer*

Last Sunday at our 10AM Mass, our Second Graders and DOSC crowned Mary for our parish. Each flower an offering of our prayer and our love!

My Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend, we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord into Heaven. Jesus' physical presence becomes a spiritual presence encountered in the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church. When Jesus ascended into Heaven, He entrusted the Church to His apostles and disciples to carry on His mission and ministry. Throughout the ages, the Holy Spirit has moved through the hearts and lives of the faithful to continue this sacred endeavor.

The Church of Cleveland, under the leadership of our shepherd, Bishop Malesic, has continued the work of the Lord in very powerful and beautiful ways. Recently, Bishop Malesic promulgated 12 deaneries, covering the eight counties of our diocese. St. Colette Parish is a part of the Suburban-Southwest Deanery, of which are 17 other parishes in this geographic area: Assumption, Broadview Heights; Holy Family, Parma; St. Anthony of Padua, Parma; St. Bridget of Kildare, Parma; St. Charles Borromeo, Parma; St. Columbkille, Parma; St. Francis de Sales, Parma; St. Matthias, Parma; St. John Bosco, Parma Heights; Mary Queen of the Apostles, Brook Park; St. Bartholomew, Middleburg Heights; St. Michael, Independence; St. John Neumann, Strongsville; St. Joseph, Strongsville; St. Ambrose, Brunswick; St. Albert the Great, North Royalton; and St. Basil the Great, Brecksville.

This type of governance is closely aligned with Canon Law and will assist the Diocese in ministering to the faithful in a closer fashion.

My dear friends, I have been assigned by Bishop Malesic to act as the Dean in this Suburban Southwest Deanery. This will require greater responsibilities within the Diocese of Cleveland. I am grateful for the Bishop's confidence in me and my leadership here. Please pray for me as I pray for you.

I will close with a quote from Bishop Malesic:

"The Great Commission cannot become a faint echo from the past. It is a living call placed deep within each of us at our Baptism. All our structures—parishes, schools, charitable works, and deaneries exist for this one purpose. I hope today's promulgation is a decisive step we will take together to hold us all more accountable to the Lord's call. May we too joyfully proclaim at every moment in our daily lives that Jesus Christ is Lord!"

God Bless and Keep You,

Fr. Finn

What's Happening at St. Colette?

Attention Men of the Parish!

Those who attended the Men's Retreat this past Lent, please join us for a "regathering" event on Monday, May 20, 2024 after the 6:15PM Mass in the Lower Hall! This will be a time of fellowship and reflection to see How We're Doing with the Tools in our Spiritual Toolbox?

Snacks and light refreshments provided

RSVP to the Parish Office by Friday, May 17.

Looking forward to seeing the 50+ men who attended this year's retreat!

- The 2024 Men's Retreat Team!

Catholic Cemeteries Association Pre-Planning Seminar

The Catholic Cemeteries Association invites you to attend a 1-hour pre-planning seminar on Tuesday, May 21, 2024, at 6:30pm in the Lower Hall of St. Colette Church.

A representative from the CCA will inform about the necessary steps to pre-planning the burial process, burial options including options for cremated remains, and the Catholic Burial Rite. We kindly ask that you please RSVP to this event to the Parish Office at 330-273-5500 or info@stcoletteparish.com with name & number attending! Thank you!

Our Lord assured us that those who mourn are blessed, and that they shall be comforted.

Seasons of Hope* offers those who are grieving an opportunity to come together, give voice to their sorrow, and find hope and healing.

Our 7-week session is being offered beginning on Wednesday, May 22rd at 6:45pm.

If you or someone you know is struggling with grief and could benefit from a loving community, please call Lisa Radey at St. Colette's to register at 330.273.5500.
